CAD File Request Disclaimer

Upon request, Monitor Elevator Products can provide CAD files to our customers only. The customer can then forward to whom they please. Please note that Monitor Elevator Products assumes no responsibility for any manufacturing errors, code compliance issues, or discrepancies resulting from the use of these files.

If CAD files are provided, Monitor Elevator Products is not responsible for issuing revised or updated files unless specifically requested. All drawings are supplied for reference purposes only and are based on customer-approved manufacturing specifications.

Thank you,

Management
